

JOB DESCRIPTION: CARE ASSISTANT

Reports to: Registered manager

Purpose of Role

To support clients with all aspects of their day-to-day living, so they can enjoy the best possible quality of life. You will mostly work alone with the client in their home. Providing care and support offers many rewards, but can also be challenging. Compassion, good communication skills and a calm and caring manner are essential for this important role in our company.

Key Responsibilities

To provide safe, reliable, compassionate care and support to meet the individual needs and wishes of each client. Each person is unique therefore you must respect each client's choice about how their care and support is given and promote their dignity at all times.

You may be the only person the client sees over a period of time; it is therefore essential to report any changes or causes for concern to your line manager promptly. You need to be clear about when to seek help and advice in order to keep clients safe and promote their well-being.

Duties

Care and Support

Provide anti-discriminatory care and support that values the person as a whole rather than merely seeing a list of care needs. Carefully listen and observe how each client prefers their care and support to be delivered on a day-to-day basis. Help them make their own decisions so they can be as independent as possible.

Follow the instructions in the care and support plan agreed with each client. This may include:

- All aspects of personal care such as showering and bathing, dressing and grooming, dental hygiene, toileting and continence care.
- Assisting with medicines, ordering and collecting prescriptions or returning unwanted medicines to the pharmacy for safe disposal
- Supporting the client to eat and drink well. For example, helping the client to plan what to eat and drink, giving gentle encouragement, shopping, preparing and serving food and drinks, clearing the table, washing up and keeping the kitchen area clean and tidy, agreeing with the client how to store food safely and when to dispose of out of date produce.

- Safely using aids and personal equipment in a manner that respects the dignity of clients. For example, walking frames, wheelchairs, manual and electric hoists, sliding sheets and moving boards, hearing aids and other physical aids.
- Housework such as dusting, tidying, washing floors, vacuuming and sweeping, the laundry and ironing, making beds and changing the linen
- Supporting them with social and physical activities or mental stimulation such as keeping in touch with friends/ relatives, taking a client out shopping or to social activities, hobbies such as reading, photo albums, games, etc.
- Supporting a client through temporary and terminal illness, including end of life care, hospital appointments, liaising with community health support and their families.

Records and Reports

- Keep accurate care and support that you provide and assistance with medicines and other personal care provided.
- Changes to a client's condition or other concerns e.g., faulty equipment or hazards in the home.
- Response to emergencies, accidents, incidents and safeguarding matters
- Contact with families, representatives or carers and other professionals
- Other matters as required by care provider's policies and procedures
- Keep all information about clients and their families secure and confidential except where the policy requires you to share, to protect the interests of our clients

Work well as part of a team

- Follow our client's (care provider) policies, procedures and guidance at all times
- Take part in staff and client meetings
- Attend training activities, supervision and appraisal meetings
- Report any matters of concern towards you or our clients such as incidents of racial aggression or violence at work or any incident that may cause you concern to the management so risk assessments can be carried out to ensure safe working environment for you and our clients at home or in the community.

This list is not exhaustive and you may be asked to carry out additional duties. We will provide you with full training in line with regulatory requirements.
